

Freedom Of Information Act Policy

Issued: November 2017
Reviewed: November 2023
Next Review Due: Autumn 2026

1.0 Introduction: What is a publication scheme is and why it has been developed?

This publication scheme commits the Birmingham Diocesan Multi-Academy Trust (BDMAT) to make information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information mentioned below, where this information is held by the trust.

The scheme commits the trust:

- to proactively publish, or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, which is held by the trust and its schools and falls within the classifications below.
- to specify the information that is held by the trust and its schools and falls within the classifications below.
- to proactively publish, or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme.
- to produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.
- to review and update, on a regular basis, the information the trust and its schools makes available under this scheme.
- to produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available.
- to make this publication scheme available to the public.

2.0 Classes of Information

The classes of information are:

2.1 Who we are and what we do

Information about us; our structures, locations and contacts.

2.2 What we spend and how we spend it

Financial information relating to projected and actual income and expenditure, tendering, procurement and contracts and financial audit for the current and previous financial year as a minimum.

2.3 What our priorities are and how we are doing

Strategies and plans, performance indicators, audits, inspections and reviews. Current information as a minimum.

2.4 How we make decisions

Decision making processes and records of decisions for the current and previous three years as a minimum.

2.5 Our policies and procedures

Current written protocols, policies and procedures for delivering our services and responsibilities. Current information only.

2.6 Lists and registers

Currently maintained lists and registers only (this does not include the attendance register).

2.7 The services we offer

Information about the services we offer, including leaflets, guidance and newsletters produced for the public and businesses.

The classes of information will not generally include:

- the disclosure of information that is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure.
- Information in draft form.
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage and/or is difficult to access for similar reasons, and will result in the cost of time associated to providing that information exceeding the statutory cap.

3.0 The method by which information published under this scheme will be made available

3.1 BDMAT will indicate clearly to the public what information is covered by this scheme and how it can be obtained.

3.2 Where it is within the capability of the trust, statutory information will be provided on the website. Where it is impracticable to make information available on a website or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, the trust will indicate how information can be obtained by other means and provide it by those means. In exceptional circumstances some information may be available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details will be provided. An appointment to view the information will be arranged within a reasonable timescale.

3.3 Information will be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where BDMAT is legally required to translate any information, it will do so.

3.4 Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats will be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this scheme.

4.0 Charges which may be made for information published under this scheme

4.1 The purpose of this scheme is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public. Charges made by the trust for routinely published material will be justified and transparent and kept to a minimum.

4.2 Material which is published and accessed on a website will be provided free of charge. Charges may be made for information, subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament.

4.3 Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as:

- photocopying
- postage and packaging
- the costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information.

4.4 Charges may also be made for information provided under this scheme where they are legally authorised, they are in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities, justified and are in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public.

4.5 If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment may be requested prior to provision of the information.

5.0 Written Requests

Information held by the trust that is not published under this scheme can be requested in writing, when its provision will be considered in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

6.0 Contact Details

If you require a paper version of any information, or want to ask whether information is available, please contact BDMAT by telephone, email or letter. Contact details are set out below or you can visit the Trust website at:
